

Weather Advisory

In case of severe winter driving conditions please call the Regional Training Center at (937) 427-4540, press 0, after 7:15 a.m. to find out if training is canceled. If it is canceled, the message on the voice mail will inform you of the cancellation. If there is no message to that effect, we are still currently planning to hold training that day. The Regional Training Center will make every effort to hold training as scheduled. We do however, understand different individual's comfort level with driving in bad weather and the decision to attend or not is yours. If you decide not to attend a training (for any reason,), you need to call the RTC and cancel, and we won't consider you a "No-Show."
